Junior Achievement Honors Emery O. Johnson with Developers Award

Junior Achievement honored Emery O. (E.O.) Johnson with its Champions of Business Developers Award at its 2011 Champions of Business event. The awards banquet was held on May 12, 2011 in Wausau. E.O. Johnson founded EO Johnson Office Technologies as the E.O. Johnson Company in May 1957.

Junior Achievement's Champions of Business recognizes and honors the professional accomplishments of leaders who have helped sculpt the economic landscape of Northcentral Wisconsin. Champions of Business inductees represent investors, entrepreneurs, leaders, and owners of businesses, both large and small who share a commitment to excellence and conducting business ethically.

Mary Jo Johnson, daughter of E.O. Johnson and CEO of the company he founded, received the award. E.O. Johnson passed away February 2, 2011 at the age of 89.
